

From YouTube to Indiaâ€™s Biggest Stage- Jonita Gandhiâ€™s Musical Journey

Posted by daston / 07 - Aug - 2019

Jonita Gandhi's musical journey is certainly an intriguing one, even amongst fellow Indian musicians. After moving from Delhi into Canada, Jonita would hone her singing skills by taking western vocal classes at the Ontario Conservatory of Music. Jonita would later take up Hindustani vocal lessons, helping influence her singing style today from both Hindu and Western influences.

Jonita became viral on YouTube when she was just seventeen, having collaborated with Aakash Gandhi on songs like "Tum Hi Ho" acoustic cover and "Pani Da Rang". After her debut hit for Chennai Express with the title song, Jonita Gandhi's star began to shine bright. Jonita Gandhi now has a huge fan following and the more she sings, the more fans she will garner. Fast forward to 2019 and Jonita Gandhi will be performing on the dazzling shores of Sentosa, Singapore.
